HEAT is on in kitchen, and don't we Relish it?

CHEF Guy Grossi can help make your mum's day.

People who buy two charity cookbooks will go in the draw to win a three-course lunch cooked by Grossi on Mother's Day, May 9.

The Hospitality Employment and Training (HEAT) cookbook features recipes from those who have graduated from the Port Melbourne training centre, and the Relish cookbook features recipes from local restaurants.

St Kilda Rotary secretary Julia Topliss said people could pick up both the books for $35 and go in the draw to win the special lunch.

"All proceeds from the books go to charities working to improve the lives of people in need, both locally and overseas," Ms Topliss said.

To be in the running for the prize, books must be bought by May 3.
